

Tips on Corresponding with Missionaries

- Please do not send correspondence to a missionary through the Global NMI Office. If you do not have an address for your LINKS missionary, ask the following people for help (in this order): your district LINKS coordinator, your district NMI president, or Global LINKS Coordinator Linda Phelps.
- All packages mailed to missionaries should be sent to them directly, unless otherwise specified. Then be sure to use the address provided by the missionary.
- Always check with the missionary before sending a package. Ask if they can receive what you are mailing and verify that the mailing instructions you have are the most up-to-date.
- Every gift sent to a missionary should have an e-mail address attached, so the missionary can acknowledge receipt easily.
- All monies sent to the Global Ministries Center should be mailed to the following address: Global Treasury Services, PO Box 843116, Kansas City MO 64184-3116.
- Do you need to write your LINKS missionary in a language other than your own? For simple greetings and messages (not for detailed letters), try translating it through Google. Go to www.google.com/language\_tools. Choose the "From" language and the "To" language, and you can communicate.
